

THE GREAT VEGGIE ADVENTURE

Once upon a time, in a land not far away, a village of veggies came to life each day!

They weren't just veggies, oh no, they were quite grand. Heroes with stories in a magical land.

Tommy, a boy with a curious mind, heard of these veggies and wanted to find the village where explorers could possibly discover, maybe they really are veggie lovers.

As Tommy stepped in, a sight to behold, a fire truck zoomed by, so red and so bold!

It was a capsicum, shiny and bright with a siren that sang all day and all night.

"All aboard!" cried Captain Capsicum with flair, "Let's save the day, we've got water to spare!"

Tommy laughed as the truck sped away. This was already a magical day.

Then up ahead, what did Tommy see?

Why a pumpkin carriage, as grand as can be!

It shimmered and sparkled in the golden day light, the large orange pumpkin brought him delight.

"Hop in, Tommy!" cried Princess Pumpkin with cheer, "We're off to the parade, the best event of the year!"

What came next was a wonderful surprise, tomato planets appeared in the skies. So red and so bright, Tommy reached out and took his first bite.

Oh, what a delight, so juicy and fresh, he chewed it and smiled, but what was to come next?

With a 'whoosh' up high,
Tommy saw something zooming by!

Carrot rocket ships soaring through the sky!

Bright orange and speedy,
they make their way past.
Off to the stars, so very fast.

At the end a big day, Tommy found a spot, in a garden so peaceful and so hot.

Mushroom chairs as soft as can be, invited him in, where he could rest peacefully.

Tommy yawned and curled up with a smile, feeling sleepy after exploring for a while.

At last, it was time to wave goodbye.

With joy in his heart, feeling happy and brave, his new veggies friends, he'd see again.

And from that day forward,
Tommy would say, each veggie
he ate brightened his day!

Capsicum trucks and pumpkin parades, tomato planets and rocket ships up, up and away.

Mushroom chairs that felt so grand, veggies were truly magic,
in every land!

The END

